

Public Lecture: MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR PRESENTATION

Strong presentation skills are a key to success for researchers, scientists, and others, yet many speakers are at a loss to tackle the task. Systematic as they otherwise can be in their work, they go at it intuitively or haphazardly, with much good will but seldom good results. In this talk, Dr Doumont proposes a systematic way to prepare and deliver an oral presentation: he covers structure, slides, and delivery, as well as stage fright.

JEAN-LUC DOUMONT

An engineer (Louvain) and PhD in applied physics (Stanford), Jean-luc Doumont is an articulate, entertaining and thought-provoking speaker. He is acclaimed worldwide for his no-nonsense approach, his highly applicable, often life-changing recommendations on a wide range of topics, and Trees, maps, and theorems, his book about “effective communication for rational minds.”
